Basic information

The information and training courses offered by the Office for Care and Integration Bremen - Integration Office - serve to provide participants with knowledge about all areas of disability law, to establish contacts and to intensively exchange experiences and knowledge.

The courses are offered free of charge. In terms of content and procedure, they meet the requirements of modern adult education. The Office for Care and Integration Bremen - Integration Office - and its training team also take part in company, staff and severely disabled persons' meetings on invitation, for example, and can conduct in-house training courses on desired topics. The respective event program can be found on the website of the Office for Care and Integration.

In the digital learning world of the BIH Academy, you can now also continue your education flexibly. The self-study courses can be easily integrated into your everyday working life as your learning progress is saved.

Two self-study courses are being offered at the start:

- "Assembly of severely disabled people" and
- "SGB IX in personnel management".

You can find the link to the BIH Academy under "Further information".
