Basic information

The entitlement to advance maintenance payments is checked regularly by the maintenance advance office.

For the check, you must answer appropriate questions and submit documents.

You must report any changes that may be important for the claim or about which you have made declarations in connection with the maintenance advance. This also applies independently of a request by the maintenance advance office.

Contact the maintenance advance office even if you are unsure. In this way, you can avoid possible reclaiming of benefits.

Requirements

They receive advance maintenance payments.

Procedure

The Child Support Advance Office asks single parents to provide information for the annual living situation review. The single parent's response can be made by online service or by paper form. After receipt of the answer, it will be checked whether there is still an entitlement to advance maintenance payments.
