

Wohnsitz ummelden (Online - Pilotbetrieb)

Have you moved within Bremen or moved from the federal territory to Bremen? You can now re-register online, including the new address on your ID card.

Important note:

When moving from Lower Saxony, spouses cannot be selected as a family group in the online service. This means that in these cases, spouses must re-register independently. You can of course also use the online service for this. If there are children, they only need to be selected by one spouse.

The developers of the service are working hard to resolve this problem.

Further information can be found in the linked descriptions "Reregistering your place of residence (sole, main or secondary residence)" and "Registering your place of residence, moving in from within Germany (sole, main or secondary residence)" under "Further information".

Requirements

You will also need

- a valid ID card with activated online ID function incl. PIN (for more information on the online ID function, see "More information" - "Where can I find out more?")

- Landlord confirmation

Procedure

Digital residence registration involves the following steps:

- You create a Bund-ID user account.

- After checking your data, we will provide you with a registration confirmation in your user account and you can digitally change the address on your ID card.
- The new address sticker for your ID card and/or passport will be sent to you by post. All you then have to do is stick it on the document. Everything is now up to date.
