Basic information

The regular financial needs for the maintenance and care of a foster child are covered by ongoing benefits.

Special measures and expenses may be necessary to promote the foster child's physical and mental development and to enable him or her to participate in society. These can be financed by one-off allowances or grants.

These benefits include, but are not limited to, allowances or grants for:

- Class trips
- Vacation and vacation measures

Procedure

- Inquire at the social center responsible for your district or the specialized service of the Office for Social Services or PiB - Pflegekinder in Bremen gemeinnützige GmbH.
- The Office for Social Services will check your application and the entitlement to the assumption of contributions.
