

Commercial register

Would you like to find out more about the commercial register?

The commercial register is a public register that keeps records of registered merchants and companies in the district of the competent registry court and provides information on the documents filed there.

If you have any questions, please contact the Single Point of Contact. This is available to all companies as a contact and service point for business at WFB Wirtschaftsförderung Bremen GmbH.