Basic information

If you have not yet received an election notification on the 21st day before an election (Europe, Bundestag, Bürgerschaft), contact the responsible election office immediately. If you are on the electoral roll, the electoral office can tell you your polling station for elections to the Bremen Parliament. You do not need the election notification for the election itself; every electoral office has an electoral roll of the electoral district. However, you should have an ID or passport ready for identity verification.
