Basic information

More and more people are taking the plunge into self-employment. They want to take on responsibility with optimism and commitment.

Many of you are not so familiar with the commercial and tax requirements of entrepreneurial self-employment, so we offer advice and assistance. For your support, there are contact persons for business start-ups in every Bremen tax office. Contact persons are available at our locations in Bremen (Mitte), Bremen Nord and Bremerhaven.

These experts at the tax offices provide information on general tax issues. Comprehensive tax advice, in particular on structuring options, may not be offered by the tax office. This is reserved for the tax consulting professions.

The aim is to remove any "stumbling blocks" or "fear of contact" when dealing with the tax office and to support the young companies in their start-up phase.

You may already know that it is mandatory for every business startup to electronically submit the tax registration questionnaire (FsE) to the tax office within one month of starting operations in order to register a commercial or freelance activity of a sole proprietorship.

The easiest way to complete this submission is to use the tax administration's service portal "ELSTER - Your Online Tax Office" at www.elster.de. After registering with ELSTER, you will find the questionnaire for tax registration under "Forms & Services".

If you would like to take advantage of the advisory service, please contact the contact persons by telephone or e-mail or book an on-site appointment.
