

ask for lost property

You have the option to file a loss report at any time at:

<https://fundinfo.novafind.eu/home/fundinfo/F04011000/app/>

By submitting your lost property report, you will automatically be notified as soon as your item is received by the Ordnungsamt - Lost and Found. You can choose whether you would like to be notified by letter or e-mail when filing your lost property report.

Please note that it can sometimes take several weeks for lost property to reach the lost property office.

If a lost property contains information about your person, e.g. identity card, EC card, insurance card or similar, you will automatically be notified in writing even without reporting the loss.

If you have any further questions on the subject of lost property, please contact us by e-mail:

fundsachen@ordnungsamt.bremen.de or by telephone at
